

Name: _____ Date: _____ Block: _____

Settlement and Colonization (p.232)

1. What was the Company of a Hundred Associates required to do according to its charter? How did they view the settlement issue and why did they feel this way?

2. What happened to the Company of a Hundred Associates following 1660?

3. By what name would the English colonies along the Atlantic coast come to be known?

The Jesuit Missions (p. 232-233)

1. Who were the Jesuits and what was their goal?

2. What did Cardinal Richelieu want the Native peoples to hear? Who supported him in this view?

3. Describe two ways the Jesuits were different from previous Roman Catholic missionaries?

4. Provide some examples which show why the Jesuits found the task of mastering Native languages difficult?

5. What advantages were there for the Hurons who converted to Christianity? What effect did the disagreement between Christian and non-Christian Hurons have on the Huron nation?

The Role of the Coureurs de Bois (p.234-235)

1. Who were the Coureurs de Bois?

2. What did the French officially want the Native traders to do? What actually happened in practice?

3. Who were the furs supposed to be controlled by? How did the coureurs de bois get around this?

4. What are fur brigades?

5. Who are perhaps the two most famous coureurs de bois? What are they so famous?

6. How did these two famous 'runners' capitalize on their discoveries?

